NORTHERN LIGHT 1962

*Presented by
The Seniors of North Attleborough High School
North Attleborough, Massachusetts*

Our high school days are filled with cherished memories. Some stand out in your mind, such as that important game you wanted so much to win, your first school dance, the class parties and picnics, the thrill of being a senior, and that wonderful feeling of accomplishment as you see the senior year draw to a close.

To help you remember these special moments, we present the theme, "Memories," for the 1962 yearbook.

“Receive my instruction and not money; choose knowledge rather than gold. For wisdom is better than all the most precious things; and whatsoever may be desired cannot be compared to it.”

—Proverbs 8:10-11

We, the Class of 1962, dedicate our yearbook to you, Miss Scanlin, for effectively teaching us that wisdom is its own reward.

EDITORS

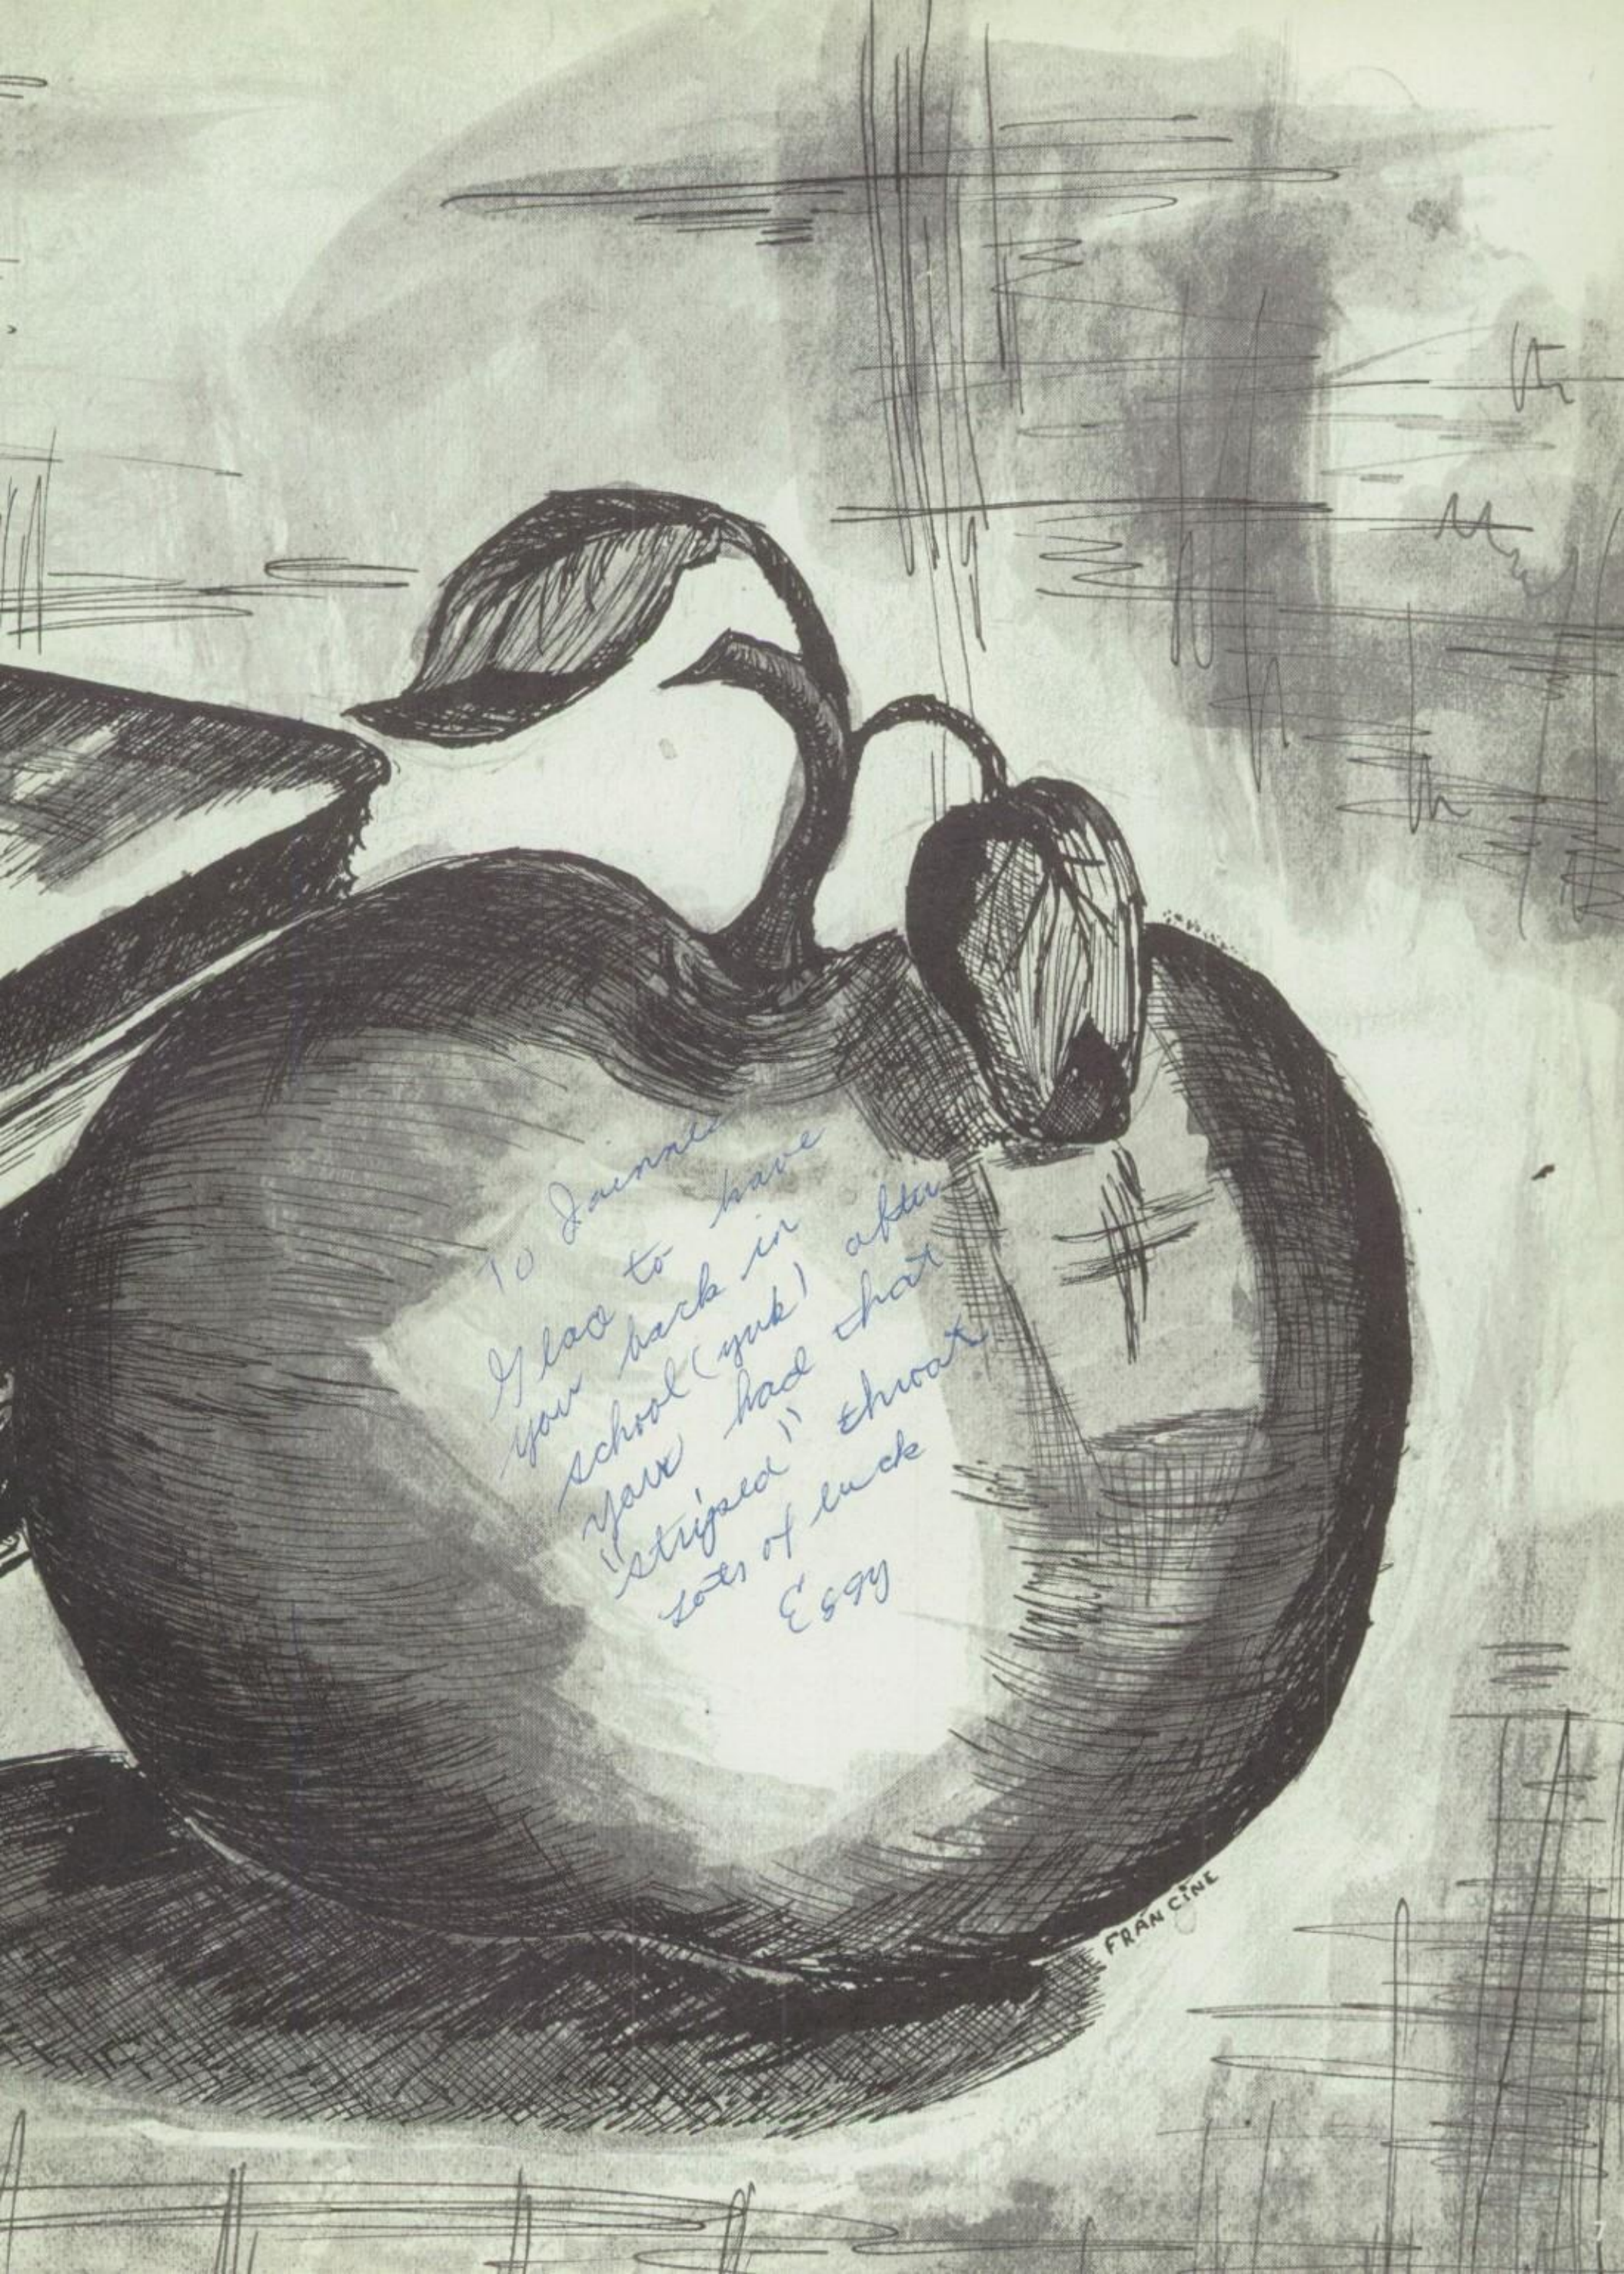

MARY ANN McADAMS

RONALD DWIGHT CLAVETTE

We present this yearbook to you with the hope that it will give a true and enjoyable reflection of your high school memories. Thank you sincerely for the opportunity and honor of being the 1962 yearbook editors.

"MEMORIES"

Since my tenure of office as Principal of North Attleboro High School, I have had the privilege of witnessing the graduation of approximately fourteen hundred students, and have had the pleasure of being with most of those students for a four-year period. Such an experience carries with it memories of many hundreds of students. Strangely enough, the unpleasant memories do not linger for long and instead all that remains is a collection of rosy-hued experiences associated with teen-agers. These memories convince me that we need not worry about North Attleboro High School teen-agers of the present day. They are destined to become excellent citizens in the very near future.

"MEMORIES"

Memory is the mind's eye. The pleasures of the senses fade quickly, but those of the mind are ever with us. For the majority of us, our high school years are the happiest of our lives -- a time when the most enduring friendships are made. And as the years pass, your high school memories will grow ever stronger.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Seated, l. to r.: William F. Clark, Robert H. Rickard. Standing: Thomas Galvin, Elmer N. Riley, Bernard J. Doyle Jr., Walter E. Cavanagh. Missing: Robert G. Funke.

The Class of 1962, realizing the vital worth of a high-grade education, wishes to extend its gratitude to the North Attleborough School Committee for the excellent school system.

Without the unselfish interest and efforts of the fine citizens who make up the school committee, the high standards of education in the North Attleborough School System would not be possible.

SENIORS

The Class of 1962 wishes to express its appreciation to Mrs. Crockett and Mr. Bevilaqua, who have both so ably served as the class advisors. Anyone who has gone to them has undoubtedly found them genuinely interested, ready to help, and offering excellent suggestions. We hope they have enjoyed working with our class as much as we have profited from our association with them.

Mrs. Crockett and Mr. Bevilaqua, you will both always remain an integral part of our high school memories.

ACTIVITIES

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

Since the Amateur Radio Club's incorporation, it has developed a first-rate program of activities. In mid-January the club received its amateur call letters, KLVEC, and it will soon be on 40 meter CW shouting CQ to all those that listen. The club has weekly code practice sessions, and is affiliated with local CD RACES group.

The Audio Visual Club covers a wide range of services satisfying the needs of lighting, sound equipment and visual aids. The club provides the equipment and operators for the school shows, basketball games, and movies.

The club obtains films for general science, physics, biology, social subjects, and guidance. Other visual aids such as filmstrips and projections, and slides are stored and cared for by the club. A complete filmstrip library was provided for the school's supplementary needs.

ART CLUB

MR. WALTER RUTKOWSKI
Advisor

Mr. Rutkowski has transformed the Art Club into a vibrant, well-run organization whose purpose is to give art students an opportunity to develop their talents. The various posters advertising North's activities are proof of Mr. Rutkowski's stimulating personage.

CAMERA CLUB

Within a few years, this organization will be equipped to do the majority of the school's photographic work and will become a real service club.

MR. DONALD GIRARD
Advisor

The Camera Club, a new organization started and advised by Mr. Donald Girard, is striving to establish an organized program for the school's photographic needs. Under a new government grant, the club has obtained new photographic equipment to furnish the photo lab. Although the club has a few veteran photographers, the majority of the members are working to familiarize themselves with the field of photography.

CAREER CLUB

The Career Club, a new student-run organization, gathers information concerning various occupations and disperses its findings to the students. Through the efforts of its members, the Club helps to broaden the occupational scope of the student body. Mr. Kenney, mechanical drawing teacher, is faculty advisor for the group.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, now in its second year of operation, has as its main activity competitions among the members during its morning and afternoon meetings. New members are instructed in the rules of the game and tutored by more experienced players. In the future, the club hopes to establish tournaments between various neighboring schools for advanced players.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club formed two years ago to enable the German students to engage in active experiences outside the classroom. This year Mr. Silverstein's personal slides of a trip to Germany were shown so that the students could become more familiar with life in Germany. The program allows the students to engage in a portion of German life by learning popular German songs and attending the annual Trivoli festival in Boston.

Leadership: the ability to guide without dominance.

Character: the entire estimate of a person.

Service: the performance of a task for the benefit of another.

Scholarship: the enjoyment and ability of acquiring knowledge.

The object of the National Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of North Attleboro High School.

During the year the Honor Society, under the supervision of Mrs. Lydia Snyder, faculty advisor, was very busy with various activities: a dance held in November called "Rock Around the Clock," ushering at the Open House, revision of its constitution, presentation of a new Massachusetts state flag to the school, and the induction of new members.

LIBRARIANS

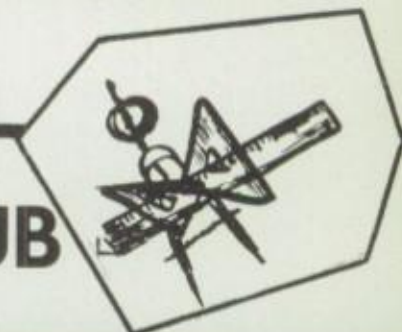

The student librarians work during homeroom and study periods to help the students by locating and checking books and keeping the shelves in order. Under the direction of Miss Irving, these students help to make the library a smooth-running integral part of the school.

The Red Cap, co-edited by Karen Precourt and Neal Poirier, has been faithfully published every month. With Mr. William Kelly, as advisor, the paper has given the student body many hours of reading enjoyment. Each month, a member of the faculty and one of the secretaries have been interviewed, better acquainting the students with the school personnel. All the social events, fashions, sports, and important individual accomplishments have been thoroughly covered. This year, the Red Cap had a new attraction—the title RED CAP was printed in red letters for the first time.

The purpose of the Student Council is to improve relations between the students and the faculty, while assisting them both in their endeavors to improve the school. The Council provided non-profit bus service to the football games and supplied students with shakers and pins. It organized a complete canvass of the town and school, raising $1,200 for the purchase of jackets for our victorious co-champion football team. During this year student-faculty relations were most friendly due to the efforts of the council members to insure good will on both sides.

The North Attleboro High School Band has greatly contributed its musical talents in adding color to many rallies, football games, and parades held this year. Under the direction of Mr. Ronald Christianson, this organization offers an opportunity for musically inclined students to perform publicly. The band has received an A-rating at every music festival and is a feature of the annual music review.

MAJORETTES

The Majorettes, a group of seven girls, are chosen from the Drill Team because of their exceptional twirling and marching ability. Under the baton of Cherylann Galasso, they participate in the half-time activities of the football games, and also at the Music Review and Music Festival.

WIND ENSEMBLE

A Tribute to Mr. "C"

MR. RONALD CHRISTIANSON

Mr. Ronald Christianson, director of music at North Attleboro High School, is directly responsible for the many activities of his eight musical units. The fine performances of these groups are of credit to his long hours and almost infinite patience with several hundred students.

Mr. "C" can be seen running around the field almost every homeroom period in the fall directing his band, majorettes, drill team, and color guard. Several afternoons a week, he holds rehearsals for the A Cappella choir. Also, he manages to direct the Dance Band in preparation for assemblies, and the Wind Ensemble. After the football season, he organizes the Glee Club, and begins their preparation for the Spring Concert. In the spring, he can be found on the field or in the band-room preparing many of these groups for the Music Festival. His success is evident in their excellent ratings. After the festival, the highlight of the school music activities, the Spring Concert, is held under his direction.

In recognition of all these contributions, we extend to Mr. "C," our director and friend, our warmest appreciation.

The Wind Ensemble meets once a week for rehearsal, and appears at the Spring Concert and Music Festivals. The membership is composed of upperclass bandmen. The different percussion instruments used by this group have delighted its audiences at each performance.

DANCE BAND

Directed by Stephen Smith, and supervised by Mr. Christianson, the Dance Band begins to practice in August, and continues once a week throughout the school year. The band has entertained this year at a PTA dinner, a school dance, the variety show and assemblies. Each year, they participate in the Spring Concert and Music Festival.

The A Cappella Choir of North Attleboro High School, under the direction of Mr. Ronald Christianson, is one of the school's most active organizations. Rehearsing twice weekly, the choir has obtained A ratings in state-wide competitions. For regular activities, the choir takes part in the Spring Concert, the Music Festival, and in most of the school's assemblies. The annual visit to Sturdy Memorial Hospital was again made by the choir this year during the Christmas Season.

School spirit hit a new high this year under the leadership of the N.A.H.S. cheerleaders. Their overall enthusiasm and peppy cheers have been displayed on the football field, the basketball court, and in the gym at rallies. Originality was stressed in the presentation of the Thanksgiving Day Rally at which time Hilda, the Turkey, and the North High Rocket were introduced. Under the supervision of Miss Mansfield, the girls sponsored a successful stag dance in the Fall.

Literary Staff Marsha Stevens, Editor

Under the patient direction of Marsha Stevens, the literary staff of the 1962 yearbook has furnished all the personal paragraphs beneath the senior pictures, and the write-ups of the club section.

The members have given unselfishly of their free time to meet the various deadlines. Their main objective has been to increase the literary value of "The Northern Light."

Layout Staff Bruce Ryan and Robert St. Pierre, Editors

The Layout Staff draws out the plans for each individual page of the yearbook on specially prepared layout sheets, identifies people in photographs, and aids in various other set-up problems.

This year's staff was led by Bruce Ryan and Robert St. Pierre.

Sitting: S. DiFiore, D. Leary, M. A. Habershaw, C. Ceetham, J. Robinson. Standing: A. Paquette, R. Cotter, B. James, B. St. Pierre, B. Bristol, V. Mullen, R. Candelet.

OPPOSITE PAGE: l. to r., First Row: S. DePriest, M. A. Azarian, E. Sherman, S. Althens. Second Row: M. Chace, G. Candelet, M. Stevens. Third Row: R. St. Pierre, S. Raby, B. Ryan. Fourth Row: G. MacDonald, M. Brennan, J. Kriegel, S. E. Reilly.

The Photography Assistants carried out many of the tasks of planning the superlatives, arranging picture schedules, and assisting the photographer. The smoothness of their work is of credit to their ability.

Circulation

The three circulation managers collected orders from the student body and faculty. Their success may be measured by the large percentage of additional books sold this year.

Of course it is customary for a staff to be grateful to its advisor. However, we feel we owe you much more than a stereotyped "Thank You." Without your ability to smooth our way, we would have found our difficulties insurmountable.

Advertising Staff John Kriegel and Sandra DePriest, Editors

The Advertising Staff has emphasized photographs and new layouts in this year's advertising. Their success is evident in the following pages.

Mary Anne Azarian

It is not very often that a person volunteers for many of the odd, time-consuming tasks involved in producing a yearbook when no particular honor will result. For performing many of these tasks without any credit, we would like to bestow upon you, Mary Anne, the title of our "very special assistant."

Mary Ann and Ronnie

Under the direction of Sandra Althens and her assistant, Mary Schmitt, the Art Staff has made ink sketches for each of the sectional dividers. They also completed spot drawings for the club and music emblems.

Art Staff Sandra Althens, Editor

L. to r., B. Angell, J. Cicerone, S. Althens, M. Schmitt, R. Jones, F. Manchester.

Business Staff Suzanne Raby, Editor

First Row, l. to r.: S. Raby, R. Morse, D. Tingley, J. Long, J. Langton, D. Gaboury, J. Janci. Second Row: F. Cianfarani, M. West, B. Codeere, J. Kelly, E. Riendeau, S. Ross, P. Watson, E. Gaudreau.

The work done by the Business Staff is not often evident since it is in the form of typing and after-school hours. Under the supervision of Suzanne Raby, the Business Staff has done an exceptionally fine job in these areas.

Cafeteria Workers

To the cafeteria workers we extend our well-fed thanks. We can not express our appreciation to you in words—only in contented sighs.

L. to r.: Mrs. R. Phippen, Mrs. A. Matthews, Mrs. A. Gehrung, Mrs. B. Hill, Head, Mr. J. Bartlett, Mrs. L. Foley, Mrs. G. Phippen, Mrs. H. LaMontagne.

"THE UNSUNG HEROES"

A large part of a school's reputation rests with its custodians. It is they who keep the classrooms neat, the halls clean, and the grounds attractive.

The custodians of North High perform these duties very well, but they are also friends to the student body. We've all talked to Fred at lunch or to Stanley after school, and Mr. Hill and Mr. Ouimet always have a ready smile. These are our "unsung heroes."

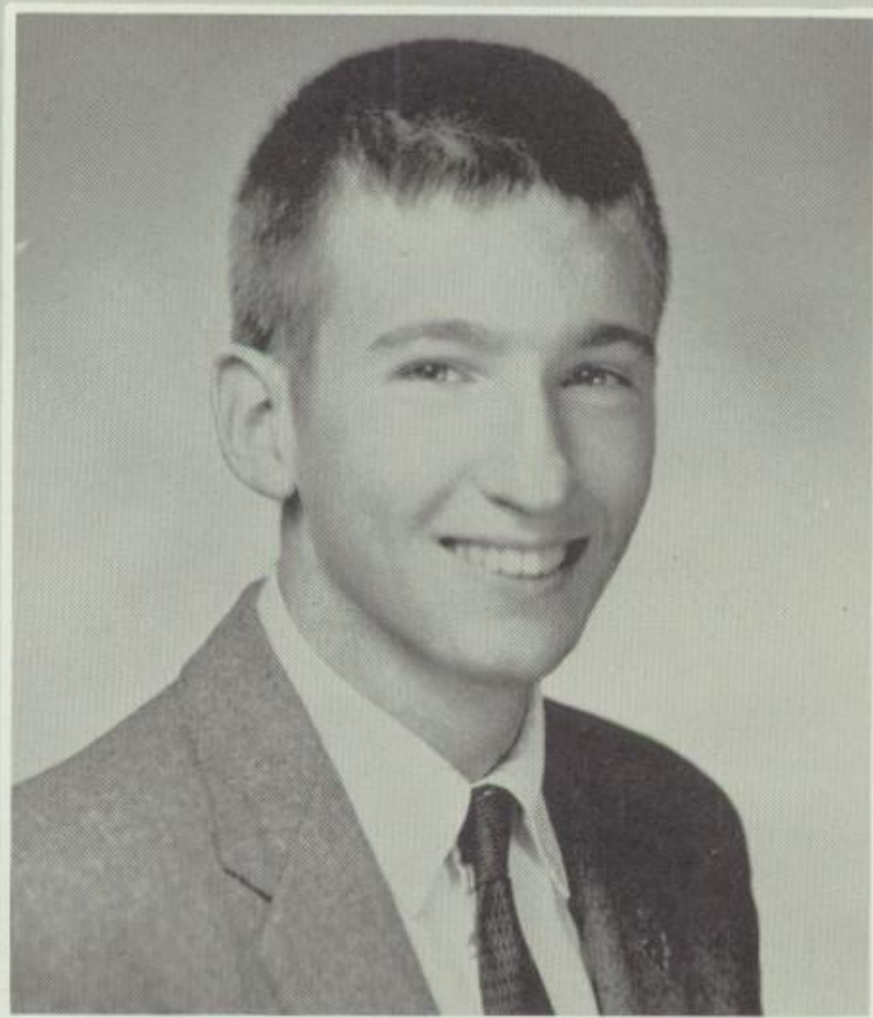

Mr. S. Madejowski, Mr. H. Hill, Mr. R. Ouimet.

GEORGE A. GRZENDA
1944 — 1962

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

Our Appreciation

Now that the yearbook is finished, we would like to extend our thanks to all those who have made "The 1962 Northern Light" possible. Our special appreciation goes to Mr. Brassard, our advisor; Mr. Clark, Mr. Regan, the faculty, and the administration; Miss Scanlin; the people of North Attleborough, who so generously supported us; Mr. Rowan of Taylor Publishing Company; Mr. Bishop and Mr. Gori of Purdy Studios; and the undergraduates.
